Creative thinking - How to Get Out of the Box and Generate Ideas

In this TEDx talk, Giovanni Corazza discusses how we frequently find ourselves in safe and secure environments, but to come up with new ideas, we must venture out into the unknown. He argues that if we want to be truly creative, we must push ourselves outside of our comfort zones and start to consider why we want the things that we do. He exhorts people to make the decision to try something new and see where it leads them.
